1	2. The Court set the October 15, 2014 deadline for mailing corrective notices in the
2	Scheduling Order it issued on October 9, 2014.
3	3. The parties agree that certain categories of persons should receive corrective
4	notices, but concerns have arisen with respect to whether certain persons
5		definitively fit into those categories. The parties are making a good faith effort to
6		agree on who specifically should receive the corrective notices. The parties
7		believe that they will be able to agree on who should receive the corrective
8		notices if given 30 days.
